FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 55:10-11

Just as the rain and snow water the earth and make it fruitful, so does the word of God bring forth good seed.

Second Reading: Romans 8:18-23

Reminding all that the trials and sufferings of this life are “as nothing,” Paul says that the glory we shall receive will overshadow all things.

Gospel: Matthew 13:1-23

Jesus tells the parable of the sower and the seed. The seed that landed on the footpath, on rocky ground, or among thorns withered and died; the seed that fell on good ground -- “the man who hears the message and takes it in” ... “bears a yield of a hundred-fold.”

Religious Education (CCD)

The Religious Education Program has ended for the 2016-17 School year. Thank you to all our wonderful volunteers. Have a great summer.

Classes will resume in Sept. 2017 on Saturday mornings from 9AM to 11AM.

Registration for the 2017-18 year will start in mid-August.

Keep your eye on the Bulletin for more information. And remember, God does not take a summer vacation.

Please go to Mass.

The feast of the Precious Blood was instituted in 1849 by Pius IX, but the devotion is as old as Christianity. The early Fathers say that the Church was born from the pierced side of Christ, and that the sacraments were brought forth through His Blood.

"The Precious Blood which we worship is the Blood which the Savior shed for us on Calvary and reassumed at His glorious Resurrection; it is the Blood which courses through the veins of His risen, glorified, living body at the right hand of God the Father in heaven; it is the Blood made present on our altars by the words of Consecration; it is the Blood which merited sanctifying grace for us and through it washes and beautifies our soul and inaugurates the beginning of eternal life in it."

RCIA

Those called by the Lord to become part of His Catholic Church are invited to participate in our Adult Faith Formation Process. Those adult baptized Catholics who would like to complete their Christian Initiation by being admitted to Holy Communion and by receiving Confirmation are also welcomed into this process. Please contact Fr. Sebastian at 718 379-4432.
